WHEREAS, the Union represents a majority of the employees and has been duly designated as their collective bargaining representative; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are desirous of maintaining the prevailing customs of the industry based on their collective bargaining experience; and

WHEREAS, the Parties are desirous of promoting a better understanding between labor and management in this industry, promoting industrial tranquility and harmony for the mutual security and betterment of the owners and employees, and securing to the public the benefits to be derived from such industrial peace; and

WHEREAS, it is the profound desire of the Parties to give and grant added benefits and security to the employees and dependent members of their families; and

WHEREAS, the Association is organized and authorized by its members, hereinafter called "members" or "employers" to collectively bargain with the Union for and on behalf of its present and future members; and exists for such purpose; and

WHEREAS, the Parties hereto mutually agree to cooperate with one another and to further their respective interests; and

WHEREAS, the Union covenants, agrees and undertakes for itself and its members all essential services, and the supervision thereof to safeguard the properties of the Employers who are members of the Association;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, conditions and provisions herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, it is agreed as follows:

FIRST

UNION SHOP

The Employer-Members of the Association shall as hereinafter provided, employ members of the Union to the fullest extent permitted by law, to perform the duties and work of Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Janitor, Handyman, Porter, Fireman, Doorman, Elevator Operator and all other persons necessary for the maintenance of the premises and grounds owned by the said Employer-Members of the Association and regularly employed for more than sixteen (16) hours per week. When used herein the terms employee and service employee shall mean Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, and all other service employees including, Janitor, Handyman, Porter, Fireman, Doorman, Helper, Elevator Operator, and other job titles heretofore used to describe the duties of service employees. This Agreement shall also cover contingent employees as defined in Article 16.

A. The Association and its members recognize the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining representative for the purpose of bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and all other terms and conditions pertaining to employment of all employees in the aforementioned categories and classifications.

B. The Association and its members recognize the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining representative for its members and the Association and its members agree not to negotiate individually with any of said members.

C. It shall be a condition of employment that all employees covered by this agreement and hired on or after its effective date shall, on the thirty-first day following the beginning of such employment or the date of execution of this Agreement, whichever is later, become and remain members in good standing of the Union or tender to the Union the initiation fees and periodic dues that are the obligations of members.

D. In the event the Union security provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, unenforceable or of no legal effect generally or with respect to any building because of interpretation or a change of federal or state statute, city ordinance or rule or decision of any government administrative body, agency or subdivision, the permissible Union security clause under such statute, decision or regulation shall be enforceable as a substitute for the Union Security clause provided for herein.

E. New employees hired by the members of the Association, with the exception of the job classification of superintendent, shall be deemed for the first ninety (90) days of their employment to be engaged in a trial period. Those employees hired for the position of superintendent shall be deemed for the first one hundred twenty (120) days of employment to be engaged in a trial period. Employees who have worked less than their respective trial period may be laid off or dismissed during said trial period with or without cause. After the trial period the employees shall be deemed regular employees. Live-in Superintendents hired into permanent positions after working as a Temporary/Fill-In shall have a Trial Period extend to one-hundred and fifty (150) days from date of hire or an additional sixty (60) days from when they are hired into the permanent position, whichever is longer.

The promoted employees may be returned to their former position with or without cause during the trial period. If the employer deems that the employees are unable to perform at the promoted position, the Employer shall return the employees to their former position with no loss of any rights enjoyed under their former position. In the event an employee promoted to superintendent is returned to his former position during the trial period, the Employer may, if it has hired a replacement, lay off the replacement notwithstanding that such employee may have been employed in excess of his or her trial period.

G. This Agreement shall cover all service employees at each building committed to this Agreement in Westchester, Rockland, Orange, Putnam, Dutchess, and Sullivan Counties.

SECOND

NO DISCRIMINATION

A. There shall be no discrimination against any employee by reason of race, color, creed, national origin, gender, gender identity, age, sexual orientation or union support. Non-discrimination against an individual for union support shall not infringe upon the Employer's right to uniformly enforce neutral work rules.

B. No employee shall be required to give any security to the Employer for any reason or purpose whatsoever.

THIRD

SUBCONTRACTING

The Employer shall be allowed to subcontract bargaining unit work, provided bargaining unit employees will not lose their job, hours, compensation levels, contributions or staffing level.

FOURTH

STAFF REDUCTION AND SENIORITY

Where an employer wishes to reduce the level of staffing for any reason, the following procedure and rules shall apply:

A. The Employer-member shall give written notice to the Union thirty (30) days in advance of any contemplated staff reduction notifying the Union of the intent to reduce staff.

B. The Employer and the Union shall meet as soon as possible to discuss the Employer's proposed staff reduction. If the parties agree on a staff level, they shall fix such terms and conditions as shall be fair, just and equitable.

C. If the parties cannot agree, the matter shall be referred to arbitration on a priority basis. The parties agree to have the arbitration within twenty (20) days if the matter can be scheduled by the arbitrator. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

D. The arbitrator shall note that it is a reduction of the required work, insufficient workload for the employees filling existing bargaining unit positions subject to the proposed reduction, or the economics which serve as the basis for the staff reduction. No reduction of staff may occur under this provision that results in an increased workload to remaining employees which regularly exceeds 40 hours per week or results in an unreasonable workload.

E. Seniority shall be a consideration on all vacation selections, layoffs and recalls. Seniority shall be a consideration on transfers, shift changes, promotions and assignments to preferential jobs. Seniority is understood to mean length of service in the building and/or for the same employer. In addition, special consideration shall be given to graduates of the Union's training school, based upon openings.

FIFTH

SICK LEAVE/PERSONAL LEAVE

The Employer agrees that all full-time and regular part-time employees shall be allowed ten (10) sick/personal days with pay, each calendar year. For employees hired on or after September 15, 2000, an employee shall be allowed a maximum of five (5) days sick/personal leave during the first year of employment. Sick days may be prorated during the first calendar year of employment. The Employer must approve the use of two (2) or more consecutive personal days, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

A. After the completion of the first calendar year's employment, the employee shall be allowed ten (10) days sick/personal leave in each succeeding calendar year.

B. In the event that the employees do not use or take any of the ten (10) days sick/personal leave herein provided during each calendar year, such employees shall receive on or before the 1st day of February of the following calendar year, an amount in cash equal to the wages due for those days not utilized by the employees as sick/personal leave.

C. Employees shall call into the Employer prior to the scheduled start of their workday giving the Employer notification that they will be unable to work due to illness.

D. An employee shall be entitled to one-half (1/2) day off per year with pay for the sole purpose of visiting a medical facility. If unused, it shall not be accumulated.

E. Employees unable to perform their jobs because of illness, injury or disability shall retain their seniority for 150 days, except for superintendents who shall retain their seniority for 120 days. The only payment required of the Employer for employees unable to perform their duty because of illness, injury or disability shall be payment to the Pension fringe benefit fund for not more than 150 days.

F. Employees shall be entitled to three (3) paid days leave due to the birth or adoption of a child. A birth or adoption certificate shall be provided upon the Employer's request.

G. The parties agree that on an annual basis the paid leave benefits provided to regular employees under this Agreement, including but not limited to paid sick and personal leave, vacation days and elective holidays are comparable to or better than those provided under the New York Paid Sick Leave Law, N.Y. Labor Law §196-b. Therefore, the provisions of that Act are hereby waived.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

The Employer may require the employee to submit to testing for the presence of illegal substances, alcohol or cannabis, if in its judgment, it has reasonable cause to believe that an employee is using alcohol, cannabis and/or illicit drugs.

Only "state of the art" testing for the presence of alcohol, cannabis or illicit drugs as administered through a third-party may be used to conduct such tests, including "state of the art" chain-of-custody procedures for any specimens and test results.

In the event an employee is found to have his/her work performance impaired through the use of alcohol, cannabis, or to have ingested illegal drugs, or to have abused a lawfully possessed controlled substance, such employee shall, on the first offense, be afforded the opportunity to attend a bona fide substance abuse rehabilitation treatment program and shall not be subject to discipline if the employee successfully completes such treatment program and provides verification of his/her successful completion of the program.

Should the test results not show impairment by alcohol or cannabis abuse and/or the presence of illicit drugs, the Employer agrees to pay the employee lost wages and all other benefits lost as a result of the time lost in completing the testing procedure. The employee's personnel records shall contain no reference to such physical examination and/or tests.

If the employee refuses to submit to such tests as above described, or follow the recommended treatment plan, such employee shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge. Any employee who is a second time offender, or is involved in distributing any controlled substances shall be subject to disciplinary action. The Employer will exercise reasonable precaution to preserve the confidentiality of the fact of any such testing and any records of such testing: i.e., only those employees of the Employer who have a need to know such facts or records will have access thereto. The results of the test will be used only for the monitoring of controlled substances or alcohol by employees.

If an employee approaches his/her employer, before being requested to test or subject to discipline, and admits to a problem with alcohol or substance abuse, such employee shall not be subject to discipline provided the employee attends a drug/alcohol rehabilitation center. This allowance to the employee shall not exceed three (3) separate occasions during the course of the employee's employment.

SIXTH

ARBITRATION, DISCIPLINE, DISCHARGE & EVICTION

A. Arbitration

1. Any dispute, controversy or grievance arising under the Agreement between the parties or between any Employer or Employer-member of the Association and the Union or any of its members shall first be submitted in writing by the party claiming to be aggrieved to the other within 30 days for discharges or suspensions and 120 days for other grievances except for fund delinquencies. Fund delinquencies must be brought within 6 years of their occurrence.

a. Step 1 - Within ten (10) days of notice of the grievance the business representative of the Union and the Employer, or its representative, shall meet to discuss a resolution of the grievance. If no agreement is reached at this step, the parties may simultaneously proceed to step 2 and step 3.

b. Step 2 - The parties shall make their best efforts to schedule meetings on the first Tuesday of each month between representatives of the BRI and the Union, for the purpose of discussing resolutions of grievances that have not been resolved at step 1. Nothing herein shall preclude either party from submitting a grievance that has not been resolved at step 1 to arbitration under step 3.

c. Step 3 - Either party may within thirty (30) days of step 1 submit the grievance to a contract arbitrator who shall be appointed from a rotating panel of arbitrators agreed to by the Union and the BRI. For grievances challenging the discharge of an employee that are not resolved at Step 1, the Union must file for arbitration within 15 days of the conclusion of the Step 1 meeting. The Arbitrators shall be Haydee Rosario, Julie Torrey and Karen Fernbach. The Union shall, to the extent practicable, provide an expeditious process for administering arbitrations, including for rotation of appointments among the panel of arbitrators, and shall provide quarterly information on said rotation to the BRI. When scheduling arbitration hearings on grievances challenging the discharge of any resident employees, including superintendents, the parties shall make their best efforts to ensure that their representatives and witnesses for the hearing will be available within 30 days of attempting to schedule the hearing. Additionally, in such cases, the parties agree that if the arbitrator selected by rotation is not available within 30 days of attempting to schedule the hearing, the parties shall select another arbitrator from the panel who is available within such 30-day period, or in the absence of such availability, at the next earliest available date. If an Arbitration has not been scheduled subject to this paragraph, the Employer may request a meeting with the director of the relevant union department for an explanation of any delay. The meeting will occur on an expedited basis.

Where a Union-represented employee files an internal appeal with the Union concerning the Union's decision not to pursue arbitration of a grievance, the Union shall immediately notify the involved Employer of the filing of the internal appeal, and notify the Employer of the outcome of the internal appeal. In addition, the time to file for arbitration shall be tolled pending the outcome of the appeal. However, the tolling shall not exceed forty-five (45) days from the date the appeal was filed with the union for employees provided on site housing by the employer.

The arbitrator shall be empowered to hear the dispute and make a final decision therein, binding upon the parties, in accordance with the laws of New York State. Successor or additional arbitrators shall be appointed by mutual agreement of the Union and the BRI. In the event of the removal, death or resignation of an arbitrator, a successor or temporary substitute shall be chosen by the Union and the BRI.

2. Failure to follow these time limits shall be deemed a waiver of the grievance.

3. No more than one adjournment per party shall be granted by the arbitrator without consent of the opposing party. In the event of a default by any of the parties hereto in appearing before the designated arbitrator, after written notice, the arbitrator is hereby authorized to render a decision upon the testimony of the party appearing. The parties waive the provision of Section 7506(a) of the Civil Practice Law and Rules. The Employer or the Union shall bear any expense caused by its nonappearance at one or more scheduled arbitration hearings, as long as sufficient and adequate notice has been served on them.

4. An employee shall not be penalized or discriminated against for attending, when required, arbitrations, hearings or other matters pursuant to the Union constitution. Any grievant attending grievance meetings or arbitrations shall be paid their regularly scheduled hours during such attendance. When such need for the employee's attendance ends, the employee shall return to complete his/her regularly scheduled work day.

B. Discipline, Discharge & Eviction

1. No employee who has completed his trial period shall be discharged, dispossessed or evicted without good and just cause, and then only in compliance with this paragraph.

2. In the event of a discharge, the Employer shall give notice in writing in accordance with his expressed intent that the services of an employee are not desirable setting forth the reasons.

3. The Employer waives its rights under Section 713 of the Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law of New York insofar as it shall apply to Superintendents, Janitors or other persons occupying or possessing premises as part of their compensation or remuneration for or incidental to their employment until the issue of good and just cause has been decided. The Employer shall not remove from the premises any of the personal belongings of the said employee, until the issue of good and just cause has been determined by arbitration as herein provided. This provision, however, may be waived by the Union.

4. Should the arbitrator find that the employee was discharged for good and just cause, the arbitrator may in his discretion extend the employee's time to vacate for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the receipt of the award by the Union and the Employee.

5. No Employer shall commence any eviction proceedings or seek to collect use and occupancy costs until the discharge dispute is adjusted or determined through the grievance and arbitration procedure.

6. If an employee fails to vacate his/her apartment within 30 days after his/her discharge or, in the case of a disputed discharge, 30 days from an arbitrator's award sustaining such discharge, $500.00 per week may be deducted from any final compensation due the employee. The payment of the $500.00 per week shall not be deemed to create a landlord-tenant relationship but rather shall be deemed part of the determination of the final amount owed to the employee.

7. No employee shall be discharged, evicted or laid off, nor his employment in any other manner terminated, by the Employer by reason of the hiring or employing of any partner of the Employer, any shareholder, stockholder, officer or director of the corporate Employer, or any member of the family or any individual Employer or of any partnership Employer, co-owner or member of a family of a partner, shareholder, stockholder, officer or director of any corporate Employer.

8. In the event a terminated employee is reinstated pursuant to an arbitrator's award or a settlement between the Union and the Employer, the Employer may, upon reinstating the discharged employee, lay off the replacement employee notwithstanding that he or she may have been employed in excess of his or her trial period.

SEVENTH

SEVERANCE PAY

The Arbitrator in making an award shall determine whether such discharge is for just cause in which event it is the intention of the parties that no severance pay shall be paid. However, anything to the contrary notwithstanding severance pay may be awarded in the determination of the Arbitrator, where the equities or best interests of the respective parties may so require. Where so awarded, severance pay shall not exceed the rate of two (2) weeks pay for each year of service up to a maximum of ten (10) weeks.

A. Severance pay if any, shall be scaled according to length of service at a rate of two (2) weeks for each year of service and not to exceed ten (10) weeks.

B. Retirement and Disability Appreciation Payment. If an employee shall retire from the Union or becomes permanently disabled and, at the time of such retirement or disability, such employee has been employed by the same employer for at least twelve (12) years the employee shall receive a lump-sum payment of ten (10) weeks' pay in appreciation of the employee's service. In the case of retirement, such employee must submit their retirement papers and be eligible to collect his or her retirement distribution at the time of leaving their employment. In the event any employee dies while an active employee, and qualifies for severance under the retirement provision of this Section at the time of death, the Employer shall pay such severance amount to the estate of the deceased employee.

EIGHTH

MOVING EXPENSES

All employees occupying living quarters as part of or incident to their employment, shall receive moving expenses of Eight Hundred and Fifty ($850.00) Dollars. The Union may require the deposit of said moving expenses with it before the employee vacates the premises, when and if discharged or required to move by the Employer. Moving expenses shall not be paid when the employee is determined by an arbitrator to have been discharged for just cause or voluntarily separates employment without at least 30 days notice.

NINTH

WORK WEEK

The work week for all employees in each of the job classification shall consist of forty (40) hours equally distributed over five (5) consecutive days of eight (8) hours of work each day, plus one hour for an eating period as close to the middle of the work day as practicable, all of which are consecutive. 3. The Employer shall not reduce the hours of any full-time bargaining unit position to 16 hours without going through the terms and procedures under Article 4 (Staff Reduction).

PRIOR BETTER WORKING CONDITIONS & DUTIES OF THE EMPLOYEES

It is understood and agreed that this Agreement shall not in any way alter, change, modify or deprive any of the employees' conditions that they are now enjoying or working under which are better than those specified in the Agreement. The employees shall continue to receive such better conditions during the life of this Agreement. Such conditions include and cover wages, number of hours, bonuses, vacations, holidays, privileges and such other benefits as any employee now enjoys or prior to the signing of this Agreement enjoyed. If a bonus is a one-time bonus or a performance-based annual bonus, such bonuses shall not be considered a prior better condition enforceable under this Article. As to new hires, in order to qualify as a prior better working condition, it must be knowingly or be implicitly understood to be established by the Employer, Employer's representative or agent with the intent that it apply to the employee(s). Such prior better working conditions and duties shall not survive the employment of the employee(s) for whom it was established.

A. An Employer may request a meeting with the Union to discuss increases in work responsibilities or the resumption of work duties which were previously discontinued and which management seeks to resume.

B. Disputes arising under the above paragraphs shall be resolved through arbitration.

WORK ASSIGNMENTS

The Local 32BJ/BRI Employee Work Rules are abolished and replaced as follows:

All covered employees shall perform building service and maintenance work as assigned by the Employer, subject to the following limitations:

1. No employee shall be required to perform work that requires a license under state, county or local law or ordinance.
2. No employee shall be required to perform work that is in violation of OSHA regulations or that the employee reasonably believes is unsafe to perform.
3. No employee shall be required to perform work that results in an unreasonable work load.
4. No employee shall be required to perform work that requires skills or expertise beyond those possessed by the employee.
5. No employee shall be required to perform work that results in a reduction in staff at the building or a reduction in hours or wages to the building employees.
6. No employee shall be required to perform work that the employee previously performed for additional compensation without such continued compensation. However, the Employer shall not be obligated under this Paragraph to continue to pay an employee to perform work that may be assigned under Paragraph 8 despite having paid the employee for the performance of such work in the past. Where the Employer wants to end extra pay for work covered by Paragraph 8 with regards to cleaning, stripping/waxing/buffing, and snaking of all non-mainline (non-stack) drains, the Employer will give the employee four (4) weeks' notice before ending such pay.
7. No employee shall be required to perform work that is outside the scope of building service work.
8. Employees shall perform painting, patching, spackling, tiling and staining without limitation related to the proper performance of repair work. Employees may also be assigned to paint doors, mechanical room floors and such routine painting required to maintain high-use common areas, cleaning, stripping/waxing/buffing, and snaking of all non-mainline (non-stack) drains. However, employees shall not be assigned to perform painting inside residential units unrelated to repair work.

SIXTEENTH

CONTINGENT EMPLOYEES

A. The scope of the bargaining unit includes the following two classifications of contingent employees whose employment is specifically related to limited-term circumstances.

1. Coverage Employees. Coverage employees are employees hired specifically to fill-in for a permanent bargaining unit employee who is not currently working due to circumstances involving such employee's expected or possible return to work. These are reasons related to extended sick leave, vacation leave, disability, family and medical leave, workers compensation or termination that is subject to a grievance.

2. Temporary Employees. Temporary employees are employees hired to perform certain work that is not a part of the ordinary course of regular, year-round bargaining unit work at the building. Temporary employees are not covering for an absent permanent employee, but performing unique tasks of a limited duration that cannot be performed by the existing staff during their regular schedule. Temporary employment is expected for special projects or certain seasonal tasks needed at the building.

B. It is the intention of the parties that any contingent employees under this article would be short-term employees and not remain employed at the building for any period following (a) the return to work by the regular employee the coverage employee was filling in for; or (b) the completion of the unique short-term project a temporary employee was hired to perform. In no event shall a contingent remain employed for more than 5 months, or if hired for more than one position in the above categories, not employed for more than 5 months total during any 12-month period ("Five Months in Twelve").

C. The Employer is not required to pay contributions for health, pension, legal, training or SRSP on behalf of any contingent employee for up to Five Months in Twelve. If a contingent employee remains employed for more than Five Months in Twelve, the Employer shall pay contributions for such contingent employee as required under Article 18 for any period following the 5th month; however, all contractual waiting periods for Employer contributions shall apply following the 5th month of employment of such contingent employees, except for contributions to the pension fund, which shall have no waiting period after the 5th month of contingent employment.

D. In the event the circumstances that warranted the hiring of a contingent employee as provided in this Article remain for a period longer than Five Months in Twelve, and the Employer elects to continue the employment of any particular contingent employee for such extended period, the following provisions of the agreement shall apply: (1) the benefit fund contributions described in the preceding paragraph; (2) minimum wage rates; (3) sick leave; (4) holidays; and (5) union security. No other terms and conditions of employment under this agreement shall apply to such contingent employee, including 'just cause' protection under Article 6.B.1 and protection against lay-offs when the circumstances justifying the employee's contingent employment ends.

E. Unless required by law, such as for qualified leave under state or federal family and medical leave statutes, or use of paid sick or vacation leave earned under this agreement, the only Employer contribution required on behalf of a regular employee who is unable to work due to illness, injury or disability shall be payment of pension contributions for up to 150 days.

F. The employment of any contingent employee(s) shall not result in the lay-off of any regular bargaining unit employee, nor shall it result in a reduction of force at the building.

G. The Employer must provide written notice to any contingent employee at the time of hire which states the circumstances that gave rise to the employee's contingent employment, the limited terms of such employment and that the employee's employment will terminate when those circumstances end unless the employee is offered a permanent position. The Employer shall provide a copy of such notice to the Union.

H. In the event any contingent employee is hired as a permanent employee and directly transitions from contingent employment to permanent employment at the building, the employee shall have a trial period of 90 days from the employee's date of hire as a contingent employee or 60 days from the employee's date of hire as a permanent employee, or 90 days for superintendents, whichever results in a longer trial period.

SEVENTEENTH

GREEN BUILDINGS

The Employer and Union shall convene a Green Buildings Committee to discuss ways to work together to promote practices that create environmentally responsible and resource efficient buildings.

EIGHTEENTH

BENEFIT FUND COMMITTEE

At the request of either party, the Union and BRI shall convene a committee to meet regularly with representatives of the Building Service 32BJ Benefit Funds for purpose of discussing and addressing improvements to the administrative procedures of the Fund, including but not limited to delinquencies.

NINETEENTH

A. EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY

That the persons, firms and corporations now members of the Association or who shall become members subsequent to the date of the execution of this Agreement shall be and continue to remain liable hereunder for and during the term hereof, irrespective of whether said member shall cease to be a member of the Association prior to the date set forth for the expiration of this Agreement and such liability shall be deemed to have survived the termination of such membership and shall continue for and during the full term thereof.

A. Each member of the Association shall receive a copy of this Agreement and shall be bound by its terms consistent with the rules of membership for the Association or as otherwise required by applicable law concerning multi-employer collective bargaining.

B. The Association shall inform the Union of the admission of new members in the Association within two weeks of such membership in accordance with separate agreement as to policy.

C. That the Association shall immediately inform the Union by registered mail the names of persons, corporations and partnerships, who have ceased to be a member thereof. The Union at its option may treat said Employer as if it never was a member of the Association and negotiate a new agreement, or consider said Employer bound by the terms and conditions of the collective bargaining agreement as it was prior to its termination of membership in the Association.

D. The Employer shall indemnify any employee where such employee is served a summons regarding building violations, except in cases of repeated or willful violations. Upon request of the Employer, such employee shall be required to attend any hearings, trials or conferences regarding such summonses. Such summons must be presented to the employer within two (2) days of receipt by the employee.

B. SHOP STEWARD

The Union may appoint one of the building service employees in the building as Shop Steward. The Shop Steward shall enjoy Super-Seniority where applicable.

Shop Stewards at buildings with 5 or more employees shall be granted up to 30 minutes during work time to meet with any new employee hired at their building for the purpose of orienting such employee about the Union and this Agreement. The Shop Steward shall provide prior notification to management of any such meeting.

D. STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

There shall be no strikes or lockouts during the life of this agreement.

E. INDIVIDUAL AGREEMENTS

Members of the Association shall not enter into any agreement oral or written, with any member of the Union employed as a building service employee and any such agreement shall be null and void. This collective bargaining agreement will supersede any and all prior agreements made between the Employer and any of the employees, except as to any prior better conditions that existed or prevailed prior to this agreement.

F. SALE OR TRANSFER

In the event that any member of the Association sells or transfers title and/or management to any of his or its premises so owned, maintained, controlled, managed and/or operated as aforesaid to any other individual, partnership and/or corporation in which he, she, they or it or any person directly or indirectly associated with them in their realty business or by family relationship, the said Employer shall not be relieved of any responsibility under the terms and conditions of this Agreement until the expiration hereof.

A. The Employer shall notify any purchaser of all the terms, conditions, provisions and covenants of this Agreement and in the event of failure to do so, shall be obligated to the Union and the employees for any damage or loss sustained by reason of the failure to do so.

B. If the Union and the new owner were so notified and the sale or transfer is bona fide, the seller shall be relieved of all responsibility under this contract except as to the accumulated benefits up to the date of such sale or transfer. However, in the event of a change in ownership, operation, or control of a building or buildings, and any bargaining unit employee is not offered employment by the successor employer in the building or buildings at the then existing wages, hours and working conditions, the former Employer (seller) shall pay the employee(s) an amount equal to twelve (12) weeks' pay in addition to any other accrued leave or other payments due under this Agreement. The payments to employees shall be conditioned upon employees eligible for such payment not stealing or damaging the tools, supplies and equipment of the seller during the period between announcement of the sale or transfer and the closing date of such transaction. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to limit or diminish in any way the Union's right to enforce this Agreement against any transferee pursuant to applicable law concerning rules of successorship or otherwise; nor limit or diminish in any way the Union's or any employee's right to institute proceedings pursuant to the provisions of State or Federal labor relations laws, or any statutes or rules which may be applicable.

C. At any time during the term of this Agreement where the ownership of a member building is transferred, the new owner may within thirty (30) days after the date of acquisition of title adopt this Agreement at the same wages, salaries and working conditions and shall be subject to the other terms, conditions and provisions of this agreement that existed in covering the building prior to the transfer thereof.

G. CONSCRIPTION

In the event of conscription or enlistment in the Armed Forces of the United States, the Employer agrees to re-employ any and all Union members upon their release at the salary or wage he would have received in the absence of such conscription or enlistment without the diminution of rights, privileges or benefits enjoyed by the employees at the time of their departure. Such employees shall receive the benefits of any improvements in working conditions effective at the time of their return.

It is further understood and agreed that the Employer shall be under no obligation as to the application of the monies paid to the Fund for the purchase and uses above mentioned; but the Insurance Fund, nevertheless, agrees to render reports at regular intervals to the Association respecting applications of the money received and benefits paid.

C. The Association and the Employers agree to make available to the Insurance Fund any and all records of employees hired, classification of employees hired, names, social security numbers and accounts of wages paid, that the Insurance Fund may require in connection with the sound and efficient operation of the Insurance Fund, or that may be required by the Insurance companies covering the employees.

The Parties hereto agree to maintain the Service Employees 32BJ North Pension Fund, hereinafter called the Retirement and Pension Fund, which provides such pension and retirement benefits as were and shall be agreed upon and maintained by the Trustees of the Fund created under the terms and provisions of an Agreement and Declaration of Trust now existing, and amendments duly made thereto.
